Ark City woman cited for running stoplight after injury accident

Daiana Perez, 26, accused of disobeying a traffic control device on Friday

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan. (April 19, 2021) — The Arkansas City Police Department cited an Arkansas City woman for a traffic violation after she was involved in an injury accident Friday in downtown Ark City.

Officers were dispatched at 3:45 p.m. Friday to the intersection of Chestnut Avenue and North Summit Street for a report of an injury accident. They made contact with both of the drivers involved.

Daiana Lisbeth Lugo Perez, 26, subsequently was cited for disobeying a traffic control device through Arkansas City Municipal Court.

Two juveniles were in the vehicle Perez struck. All the individuals involved were transported by the Ark City Fire-EMS Department to South Central Kansas Medical Center for treatment of minor injuries.

A defendant's guilt or innocence is to be determined by a court of law.
